

For reasons of public safety during the coronavirus outbreak, Mayor Nicholas Sacco and the Township Commissioners have temporarily suspended all town events.

In addition:

- The Senior Center is closed
- Senior citizen transportation is available to those with critical medical needs ONLY
- All senior citizen shopping trips are cancelled until further notice

Please continue to check the township website for information on rescheduled activities in North Bergen. The website is updated regularly with the most current information and events will be listed on the website calendar.

For information regarding senior services please call 201-392-2157.
